TRIP SCHEDULE

DAY 1

9.45am – Gathering for departure at our Régina landing stage where you will board a pirogue and motor up to the Mataroni creek.

11.00am – Arrival at the "carbet" (traditional forest lodge on piles) prepared for your stay. A welcome aperitif will be served, followed by free time for leisure or swimming.

After lunch (fish or wild game served), your afternoon will be devoted to walks and the discovery of large Amazonian tree species (nighttime walks can also be organized).

Grilled dinner. Then off to a restful night in your hammock!

DAY 2

Breakfast at the carbet.

You will then set off on a trek (2 hours of hiking) to reach the "Savane Roche Virgine", an exceptional inselberg (i.e. isolated rock hill or ridge—also called a "monadnock").

Snacks will be served at the summit of this isolated rock island towering above its surroundings—while participants enjoy the stunning views of the Amazonian forest.

Your return trek will then bring you back to the carbet for lunch.

Late afternoon return to Régina on pirogue.
